L-Carnitine, Co-enzyme Q10, Ginseng, L-Arginine, Lycopene, Glutathione with Multivitamins & Multiminerals

L-Carnitine - Naturally Increase Male Fertility

- ❖ Plays a powerful role in the process of sperm formation, sperm maturation, and the maintenance of sperm quality.

Coenzyme Q10 (CoQ10) - Increases both sperm count and sperm motility

(A 2004 study in the journal Fertility & Sterility looked at the effects of daily CoQ10 supplement on the sperm counts of 22 infertile men with low sperm motility. Before the start of the study, the infertile men had lower than average levels of the coenzyme Q10 in the seminal fluid. After six months of taking the supplement, the men showed increased levels on coenzyme Q10. The research also found that the men's sperm motility increased as well.)

L-Arginine

- ❖ Taking an L-arginine supplement daily can increase sperm production in men.
- ❖ Also improve the motility of sperm, thus increasing the chance of conception in couples suffering from low sperm motility

Ginseng:

- ❖ Stimulates the hypothalamus, the "factory" of sex hormones
- ❖ Makes the heart pump blood faster and better, not only making you feel younger and stronger, but also boosting your sexual desire.

Glutathione & Lycopene:

- ❖ Antioxidants reduce DNA damage.
- ❖ Necessary to control the oxidative stress & sperm motility.
- ❖ Increase general immunity.

Vitamins & Minerals:

Constitutes essential nutrients

In,

- ❖ Male Infertility
- ❖ Control of Oxidative stress
- ❖ Increase of sexual desire in men
- ❖ Age related Vision Loss
- ❖ Sperm Count
- ❖ Acne

Dosage:
